ARAJ

Lit. Meaning: prayer, fragrance and request for divine grace.

ARAJ is a classical collaboration among five exceptional young talents from India.

The project is conceptualised and designed by young Tabla Virtuoso, Ishaan Ghosh and incorporates vibrant musical compositions in Tabla, Sitar, Flute, Classical Vocals, and Sarangi by the young maestros.

The classical group comprises of Ishaan Ghosh (Tabla), S Akash (Flute), Mehtab Ali (Sitar), Pratik Singh (Vocals) and Vanraj Shastri (Sarangi). The quintet present authentic traditional classical music coupled with contemporary flair and brilliance.

Every genre of instrumental and vocal Indian Music is brought forth by the young musicians with a unique dynamism while keeping in mind the aesthetic beauty and grandeur of Traditional Indian Music.

Each of the artistes have honed their prodigious talents under acknowledged masters and 'Guru-s' and display musical maturity and expertise much belying their age.

The ensemble presents a wide range of performances covering both classical and semi-classical styles of Indian Music, in the form of Solo-s, Duets, Trios as well as group performances.

The collaboration aims to reach out to audiences world-wide and create an awareness about the depth and beauty of Indian Classical Music, as well as to portray the artistic skills of the performers. The concept is devised to present Indian Music in a vivacious manner and will undoubtedly appeal to both lay listeners and connoisseurs alike.
